Chapter 2 by SaintSayaka

"Why would someone leave something this awful on your desk?" Penny asks. Penny is one of Oconer's closest friends. Maybe a girlfriend. Oconer hasn't really gotten around to asking things like that. And besides, he has much bigger problems at the moment.

He picked up the hand and the paper. The hand was squishy - clearly a dog toy of some kind - and the paper was blank, but for his name and the brackets. Something about the situation made him uneasy.

"Oconer?" Penny asked uneasily, resting a hand on his shoulder. He flinched, and she removed it, obviously surprised.

"I think I need to see someone," he said, leaving the room without another word. Someone in the class called after him - not Penny, so he didn't care - and footsteps followed him. He didn't turn around. There was no time.
